

Table of the Extent of the Zodaical Constellations, as they are designed upon our Globes, and of the Times re- quired by the Colures to traverse them, - - - - -	212
Construction and Use of the Table, - - - - -	216
The Zodiac is far from bearing in itself a certain and ex- cessively remote date, - - - - -	230
Exaggerations relative to the Antiquity of certain Mining Operations, - - - - -	238
General Conclusion relative to the Period of the last Re- volution, - - - - -	239
Further Researches to be made in Geology, - - - - -	240
Recapitulation of the Observations upon the Succession of the Tertiary Formations, - - - - -	243
Table of Geological Formations in the Order of their Super- position ; by M. A. de Humboldt, - - - - -	249
Enumeration of the Fossil Animals recognized by the Author, - - - - -	253
Ichthyosaurus, - - - - -	255
Plesiosaurus, - - - - -	256
Crocodile, - - - - -	258
Megalosaurus, - - - - -	259
Pterodactylus, - - - - -	261
Iguanodon, - - - - -	263
Mosasaurus, - - - - -	264
Dolphin, - - - - -	ib.
Lamantin, - - - - -	265
Morse, - - - - -	265
Palæotherium, - - - - -	266
Lophiodon, - - - - -	268