

TAB. 62.—DERCETIS ELONGATUS.—Length 16 inches. From Lewes.

This species occurs abundantly in the chalk at Preston, near Brighton. The outline represents the skeleton, from a specimen in my museum; the only instance in which the skull remains.