

The specimens figured by some authors as flowers,* are, with much probability, conjectured by Dr. Lind-

IGN. 39. FRUIT OF ZAMITES LANCEOLATA, nat.
From near Scarborough. The seeds are concealed by the leaves.

ley to be cones of Cycadeæ, broken transversely ; the supposed petals being the scales, and the stamen and pistillum the fractured axis.

* Bird's Yorkshire, Tab. I. figs. 1 and 7.