

LIGN. 154. FOSSIL MOLAR TEETH OF HIPPOPOTAMUS: $\frac{2}{3}$ nat.

Fig. 1.—Grinding surface of a molar tooth, with the cusps partially worn away. Kent's Cavern, Devonshire.

2.—Perfect molar tooth, seen laterally. From a bed of Drift; in Hertfordshire.

(Collected by W. D. Saull, Esq.)