

(see p. 264.) may [be obtained: inquire for "petrified sea-anemones."

DOVER.

MOSES, Snargate-street; has generally a large collection of Chalk and Marl fossils; his prices are high.

HASTINGS.

BISSENDEN, THOMAS, West-street; OLIVER, ELIZABETH, 7, Parade: of whom Wealden fossils from the neighbouring cliffs may often be obtained.

LEWES, SUSSEX.

MARTIN, J., Mason, Fisher-street: the usual Chalk fossils from the neighbouring quarries; and polished slabs of Sussex marble, and of Bracklesham Septaria with shells (p. 373.). Fossil wood from Portland. Any collector or Institution having large specimens imbedded in stone to develop, may safely entrust them to Mr. Martin; he was the only person that assisted me in dissecting the Tilgate fossils now in the British Museum, and has become an expert and cautious workman.

MAIDSTONE.

SIMMONS, T., a well-known dealer; has usually a large collection of the Kentish Green Sand and Chalk fossils.

SHEERNESS.

HAYES, PATRICK, Sheppey-street, Blue Town. The usual Sheppey fossils. According to his own list, he has for sale,—petrified whelk-shells, cockles, clams, screws, Nautilus. Fruits, various; as beans, coffee, figs, nuts. Crabs, lobsters, turtles. Fishes' heads, teeth, and spine-bones. His charge for perfect specimens is high; a Nautilus, cut in half and
