

ON THE AFTER-DECK OF THE "FRAM" (OCTOBER, 1894)

(From a Photograph)

"There is scarcely any night, or rather I may safely say there is no night, on which no trace of aurora can be discerned as soon as the sky becomes clear, or even when there is simply a rift in the clouds large enough for it to be seen; and as a rule we have strong light phenomena dancing in ceaseless unrest over the firmament.
