

cave-bear, and other animals. That they were not without some kind of culture is shown by the vigorous incised

Fig. 461.—Figure of the Mammoth.
Engraved on ivory by Cave-men, La Madelaine, France (Lartet, "Reliquiæ Aquitan").

sketches and carvings which they have left behind on reindeer antlers, mammoth tusks (Fig. 461), and other bones,