

Dear Sir,

I could wish You would furnish me with an account of the various purposes to which Salt is applied, or would be, in case the Duty were taken off:-- particularly how far it may be used as a substitute ^{or Basis} for the Mineral Alkali -- in short what reasons You can afford me for the repeal of the Duty. I shall be at home at breakfast every morn most Week after Monday, & shall be happy to see You at abo^{ut} 10 o'clo.

I am Sir Yr Obed^t Servant

Park St. 13 March 1817

W^m Smith

I could wish you would furnish me with an account of the various purposes to which Salt is applied, or would be, in case the Duty were taken off:-- particularly how far it may be used as a substitute or Basis for the Mineral Alkali -- in short what reasons You can afford me further repeal of the Duty. I should be at home at breakfast every morn most Weeks after Monday. I should be happy to see You at about 10 of 10(?).

I am yr Obedient Servant
Parkhurst 13 March 1817 Wm. Smith