

	PAGE
Currents.—Tendency in the old Soundings to be restored.—Changes of Mouths in a Century inconsiderable.—Return to New Orleans.—Battle-ground.—Sugar-Mill.—Contrast of French and Anglo-American Races.—Causes of Difference.—State and Progress of Negroes in Louisiana . . . . .	111

CHAPTER XXX.

Voyage from New Orleans to Port Hudson.—The Coast, Villas, and Gardens.—Cotton Steamers.—Flat Boats.—Crevasses, Inundations.—Decrease of Steamboat Accidents.—Snag-Boat.—Musquitoes.—Natural Rafts.—Bartram on buried Trees at Port Hudson.—Dr. Carpenter's Observations.—Landslip described.—Ancient Subsidence in the Delta followed by an upward Movement, deducible from the buried Forest at Port Hudson . . . . .	129
---	-----

CHAPTER XXXI.

Fontania near Port Hudson.—Lake Solitude.—Floating Island.—Bony Pike.—Story of the Devil's Swamp.—Embarking by Night in Steam-Boat.—Literary Clerk.—Old Levees undermined.—Succession of upright Trees in Bank.—Raccourci Cut-off.—Bar at Mouth of Red River.—Shelly Fresh-water Loam of Natchez.—Recent Ravines in Table-Land.—Bones of extinct Quadrupeds.—Human Fossil Bone.—Question of supposed co-existence of Man with extinct Mammalia discussed.—Tornado at Natchez.—Society, Country Houses, and Gardens.—Landslips.—Indian Antiquities . . . . .	148
---	-----

CHAPTER XXXII.

Natchez.—Vidalia and Lake Concordia.—Hybernations of Aligator.—Bonfire on Floating Raft.—Grand Gulf.—Magnolia Steamer.—Vicksburg to Jackson (Mississippi) by Railway.—Fossils on Pearl River.—Ordinary at Jackson.—Story of Transfer of State-House from Natchez.—Vote by Ballot.—Popular Election of Judges.—Voyage from Vicksburg to Memphis.—Monotony of River Scenery.—Squall of Wind.—Actors on Board.—Negro mistaken for White.—Manners in the Backwoods.—Inquisitiveness.—Spoilt Children.—Equality and Leveling.—Silence of English Newspapers on Oregon Question. . . . .	155
--	-----