The whole territory may, therefore, be considered as containing about twenty thousand Indians; and this, from a careful revision of the data obtained by myself and some of the officers, I am satisfied, is rather above than under the truth. The whites and half-breeds were between seven and eight hundred. One hundred and fifty were Americans. The number of the latter has, however, increased very much since the year 1840, as many emigrants have crossed the mountains. The decrease of the red race is, no doubt, equivalent to the increase by immigration.

The surveying parties having returned, on the 14th we took leave of Vancouver. After proceeding down to the mouth of the Willamette, we anchored, for the purpose of finishing the soundings and making an examination of the channels into which the river is here divided by a few islands.

This work being completed, we dropped down several miles, to overtake the sounding parties. Here we were a good deal annoyed from the burning of the prairies by the Indians, which filled the atmosphere with a dense smoke, and gave the sun the appearance of being
