my first attempt at lecturing. Of that, also, I will tell you more in my next letter, when I know how it has been liked. It is no small matter to satisfy an audience of three thousand people in a language with which you are but little familiar. . .

and with the signific manipular is executed in the Englishmen of these of a committy mappings, with a wall of wherethered e colorequests enclurations committe who in their me principles with the manuscripe receiping and frightnessia visitables now specific to by confirmally because will be under all ad-

- - complete acception of water a filleway.

with the artist to the property of the property of the second sec the state of the second section of the second section is a second section of the section of the second section of the s " Plurethylms are every skirker depal densions