

with the exception of my friend, Professor Ramsay." In 1863 the general Report of the Geological Survey, summing up its

FIG. 5.—Weathered Specimen of Eozoon from the Calumet.
(Collected by Mr. McMullen.)

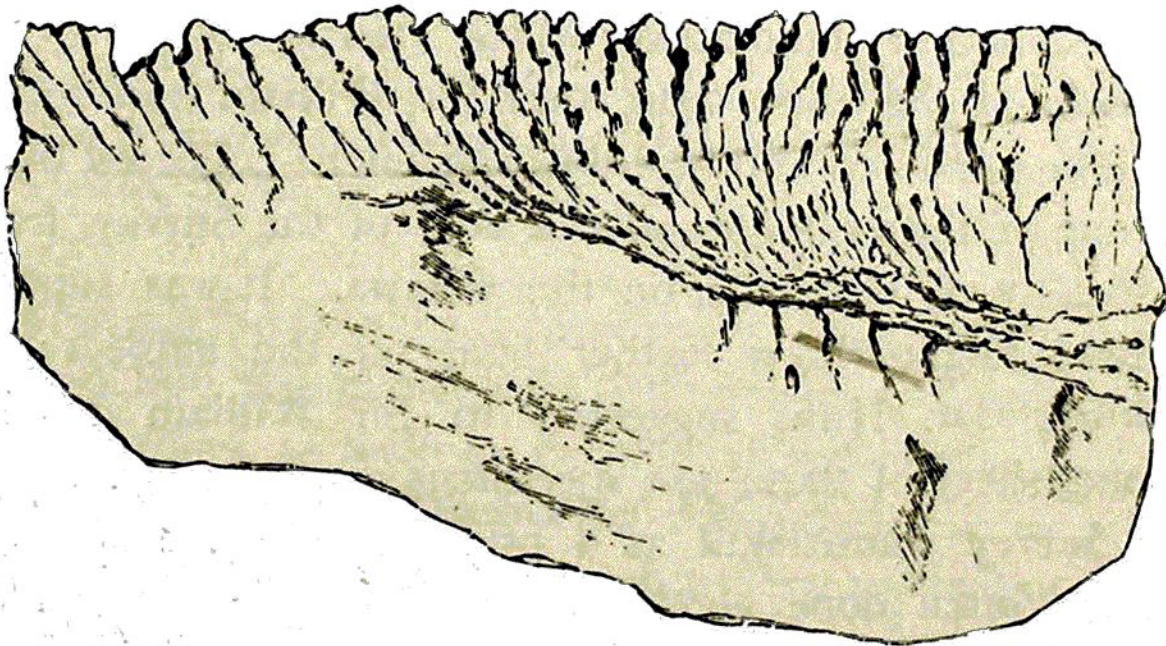

FIG. 6.—Cross Section of the Specimen represented in Fig. 8. The dark parts are the laminæ of calcareous matter converging to the outer surface.